CELEBRATION 20 YEARS AGO

Well Described By One Present That 4th of July.

Independence Day Was Celebrated In Hartford By Blue and the Gray Veterans.

The old Fourth twenty years ago as on Tuesday and a great day it

The writer is a member of the W you boys at Hartford can have as initial effort to ride one that day, good a time the coming Fourth as despite the fun he would make for the as enjoyed on the Fourth of twenty years ago you can well afford to congratulate yourselves on having a good time and a day that can be looked back upon twenty years from now as being a great day.

The Fourth I mention was celebrated by the old soldiers of the Blue and the Gray. It was a beautiful morning and the crowd began to dreds through the streets of Hartford would greatly enjoy going over to the fair ground. People by the hundreds came in from every neighborhood and all the surrounding coun ties were well represented. Every conceivable conveyance was to be seen. The finest carriages, and the best horses; mules and the old oxen drawing the good old farm road wagons

About 9:30 o'clock the old soldiers, who had gathered at the court house, marched to the fair ground to the tune of martial music, the old time fire and enthusiasm were kindled in the eyes of the veterans. The old flag received many salutes and cheers. With bands playing, banners flying and hearts beating with patriotic emotions, the grand old patriots marched gladly on. The business houses were all decorated.

Animated as were the faces-quick as were the feet, one could not fail to see the trace of sadness. Thoughts and John were busy mending their were wandering to other days when nets. Mathew was collecting customs. they had marched to battle on the field where comrades fell. On and on swept the columns into the beau- DO NOT WANT tiful grounds where back of the amphitheater a speakers st erected and beautifully decorated. Captain E. F. Kinnaird, of Rochester, called the vast assembly to ord-Beda, led in prayer. In the forenoon speeches were made by Dr. J. E. Pendleton, Major Kinnaird, General E. H. Hobson and in the afternoon by Col. J. S. R. Wedding, Col. S. P. Love and Col. I. B. Nall. All speeches were appropriate and patriotic and full of kindly feeling for both the Blue and the Gray. A big public dinner was served and the great crowd was treated bountifully. Many citizens of the town and surrounding country brought dinner and invited many friends to enjoy their hospitality.

I will attempt to give the names of those who took part in the celebration, as best as I can remember: Capt. S. K. Cox, was chosen president; Roland Hackett and J. M. Bishop, vice presidents; the Rev. J. A. Bennett, (deceased) chaplain, and Col. I. B. Nall, secretary.

The following old soldiers were enrolled in the 17th. Ky. Infantry and 12th Ky. Cavalry: R. V. Wells, Jno. P. Morton, Robert Duff, J. O. Butler, Capt. David Duncan, J. M. Byers, W. M. Morris, W. F. Wakeland, G. L. O'Bannon, W. F. Wright, Richard W. Givens, Sanford White, Jesse Shaver, George W. Reddish, R. W. Grimes, G. S. Simpson, Edwin Forbes, V. M. Stewart, J. I. Harden, F. M. Felix, J. C. Wilson, John S. Fuqua, John I. Felix, H. C. Truman, J. N. Pollard, John W. Black, S. M. Wilson, M. S. Ragland, R. P. Sorrels, John N. Blair, W. M. Southard, Robert Simpson, J. Wettannis, Luther with a party of young people. Rogers, Miles McCoy, Lindsey Bennett, Remus Carter, E. H. James, J. A. King, J. A. Hoskins, V. J. Rains, Albert Fitts, Carroll Bradley, ment, having completed the J. W. Stevens, Sidney Bozarth, J. I. year course, on August 1. Patton, Jesse W. Sharp, W. P. Napier

Rhoads, A. W. Mills, E. Crowe, H. A. Babbit, Wm. Wallace, John A. Clark, James A. Thomas, A. T. Nall and Thomas Greer.

In looking over the names of those who answered to the roll call in the reunion at Hartford fair grounds on the Fourth of July twenty years ago, we find that about eight of every nine have gone to that great reunion above. There will be only one veteran in nine this year to help us celebrate the grand old Fourth.

There was another notable feature of that day that will be doubtless remembered by some of those present. It had been announced that there would be a bicycle race that day, but for lack of courage or something it failed to come off. But there was one bicycle on the grounds and Hayward furnished the fun for the crowd. Mr. Hayward had never ridden a wheel and in order to enliven the crowd decided to make his crowd of fully 3,000 people right in front of the ampitheater. It was a lively ride and the wiggle-de-wiggle, in and aut and around and about ran the wheel, describing rainbows and ended in a splash in the ditch, landing the young attorney ankle deep in the mud and water just below the ampitheater.

All in all it was a great day-the Fourth twenty years ago and Busy People.

God never goes to the lazy or the idle when he wants men for his service. When God wants a worker he calls a worker. When he has work to be done, he goes to those already at work. When God wants a good servant he calls a busy man. Scripture and history attests this truth. Moses was busy with his flocks at Horeb. Gideon was busy threshing wheat by the winepress. Saul was busy searching for his father's lost beasts. Elisha was busy plowing with twelve yoke of oxen. David was busy caring for his father's sheep. Nehemiah was busy bearing the king' wine cup. Amos was busy following the flock. Peter and Andrew were

Turn Down Proposition, Says Cannon

Tuscola, Ill., June 16.-Women don't want the right to vote, a privilege granted them in Illinois by the Legislature last Tuesday, Joseph G. Can non, former Speaker of the National House, told a Douglas-county audience yesterday.

"I am not afraid of woman suffrage," asserted "Uncle Joe." "I am not violently opposed, if the women really want it, but if the proposition were put to the women of the State it would be lost by 50,000 votes. Now that we are going to have it in Illinois, it will be a good time for an awfully handsome man run for office."

The former Speaker said he was living on "borrowed time," and that the speech might be his last but the platform from which he spoke shook with the vehemence of his movements when he paid his respects to "some present political tendencies."

it is only skin deep; that along with extreme politeness may go the most substantial injustice.

That, of course, is true. But isn't it better to have the injustice with politeness than to have neither justice Deliberate Threat Is Made nor courtesy?

Courtesy costs so very little, and it is so nice!

The toast: "Women, once our superiors, now our equals," was coined Oxnard Tells Senator Reed and as a witticism, but isn't there danger of its becoming a tendency if we do nothing to check the rapid disappearance of old-time politeness and courtesy among the young, and especially among young men toward their sisters, their mothers and other fellows' sisters and mothers?

ANOTHER CHANGE

Free List-Must Pay Duty On Bananas

Washington, June 16.-The much mooted agricultural schedule of the Underwood tariff bill was suddenly upset again by the majority members of the Senate finance committee late today, when a motion was made to re consider the action taken earlier in the day approving the free listing of livestock and wheat, subject to a countervailing duty. The proposal now is to strike out the provision for a countervailing duty and leave cattle, sheep, hogs and wheat on the mitteemen said tonight this probably would be done. No reason for the change is announced .

The committee today further enlarged the free list by voting to take hemp and ramie a (fibre from the China grass plant, a substitute for cotton) from the dutiable list. The rates on the finished products of these materials was largely reduced.

The effect of the countervailing duty restriction, removed from livestock and wheat, will be to admit Canadian and Argentine products

WILL ORGANIZE NEW SUGAR TRUST

Before Committee.

Explains Formation of Old Combine.

Washington, June 16 .- Henry T. Oxnard, vice president of the America Beet Sugar Company, told the Senate Lobby Committee today that free sugar would result in the formation of a new "sugar trust." Only the best in Berlin, might also serve a good managed sugar factories would be able to survive free sugar, he said, and a combination would result.

"Then you are going to form a new trust?" asked Senator Reed.

"I have that in mind," said the witness.

"In violation of the anti-trust law?" "No sir; there is no law to prevent it. I am so advised by counsel."

Oxnard told how he assisted in organizing the old! sugar trust in 1888, ganizing the old sugar trust in 1888. erchanging his company with a capital of $100,000 for $75,000 new stock, The new corporation later was taken over by the American Sugar Refining Company, the present so-called trust.

Oxnard said he received $10,000 a year as vice presdient of the American Beet Sugar Company, but denied that he was paid that salary "for legislative work."

At the late afternoon session, Oxnard testified that the American Beet Sugar Company was organized with $5,000,000 preferred and $15,000,000 common stock. He declared the latter was "water," now represented, however, by plants and betterments. Bankers took $4,000,000 preferred, and got $5,000,000 common as a "profit."

"Don't you think you did a great moral wrong in putting all this water in the common stock?" asked Senator Nelson.

"You know Wall street's cor cience," returned Oxnard.

Senator Walsh questioned Oxnard about the American Beet Sugar Association, an organization of beet sugar men, and predecessor of the United States Beet Sugar Industry, which has been prominent in the pres inst free sugar. The wit-Cattle, Sheep, Hogs and Wheat On ness did not know how much the old association had spent; its books were destroyed about two years ago by his authorization.

Senator Walsh sought to learn whether Mr. Oxnard was in Washington "When Sugar at a Glance" was changed by someone in what the committee holds a violation of the Senate order making it a public document. Oxnard said he was away at that time. He said he knew a great deal about "Sugar at a Glance," but disclaimed responsibility for it.

Senator Reed asked Mr. Oxnard again as to the destruction of the sugar association's books. Oxnard explained that C. C. Hamlin, of Colorado Springs, chairman of the Board of Directors of the beet associatino, had been treasurer of the United States Beet Sugar Industry until last July. He had been succeeded by John F. Harper, of Cleveland.

"Were Hamlin's books destroyed?" asked Senator Reed. "I don't know."

"Were Harper's books destroyed?" "I don't know."

Oxnard was not prepared to say that he and his companies had contributed $50,000 to the United States Beet Sugar Industry and its predecessors. He said it might be $10,000, but promised to produce the figures later.

Will Have Hard Row to Hoe.

Speaking of the decision of the Senate sub-committee to defer to the demands of President Wilson and place cattle and grain on the free list, the Brooklyn Times says:

Naturally enough there will be strenuous objection to this new feature of the Tariff bill by the farmers of the States bordering on Canada. Misses Lucile Pirtle and Mattye The free importation of live stock Duke are the guest of Miss Martha and other agricultural products, which was provided for in the scheme of reciprocity engineered by the Taft administration, was one of the most unpopular features of Mr. Taft's administration, and the presentation of the issue in the border States did much to help Col. No scores were made on either side until the last half of the fifth when Hartford ran in five scores. One of the features of the game was the two bagger Pirtle, 7. knocked by Hunter, and he came very close to getting the pill over the left field fence. He did good work in the second stop for lunch. Needless to say the crowd did some cheering. The next feature was the fielding of getting two good flies.

By Wonderful Remedy

There are many little things to annoy us, under present conditions of life. The hurry, hard work, noise and strain all tell on us and tend to provoke nervousness and irritability.. We are frequently so worn out we can neither eat, sleep nor work with any comfort. We are out of line with ourselves and others as well.

A good thing to do under such circumstances is to take something

RAISING GUINEA PIGS

Serve as Pets and for Many Scientific Purposes.

Little Animals Are in Much Demand for Experimental Use in Preparation and Standardizing Serums and Antitoxins.

(By D. E. LANTZ.) Guinea pigs, or cavies, are raised chiefly for two purposes—as pets or fancy stock and for scientific uses.

For four centuries the guinea pig was regarded merely as a pet and bred for show and fancy alone. Being a plastic animal, it was considerably changed during this period, and several strains and modifications of the original were developed. Thus, besides the smooth-haired forms, we have the Peruvian, which is a very long-haired type, and the Abyssinian, a type with rather long hair standing out in curious rosettes all over the body. The long-haired cavies are not recommended for ordinary pets, as their coats need much care. The smoothhaired require less attention and make equally attractive pets. They have the advantages of being easily kept and of never biting when handled. However, it is not advisable to subject pet animals of any sort to much handling or fondling. Even dogs and cats are always the worse for such treatment, and pet rabbits or guinea pigs soon show the results of much handling in their roughened coats and lack of sprightliness. Longhaired guinea pigs, especially if inshelf where it need not be held during the brushing.

Guinea pigs are in much demand for experimental use in the preparation, of the contest will lose the votes testing, and standardizing serums and antitoxins. They are well adapted for this purpose, being small and easily some of the large institutions, unable to secure a steady supply of reliable stock for their own purposes, have set up breeding establishments of their own.

experiments. They have been previously used for serum or antitoxin tests or may be the offspring of animals that have survived such tests. Unless the dealer knows the source from which the animals came and can guarantee that they have never been used for experiments, he can rarely sell them to institutions. Any breeder undertaking to supply animals to laboratories must give absolute assurance as to their suitability for experiments. If he can do this and furnish the animals as needed, he should and lucrative business.

Buried deep in our American forest we find bloodroot, queen's root, mandrake and stone root, golden seal, Cregon grape root and cherrybark. Of these Dr. R. V. Pierce made a pure glyceric extract which has been favorably known for over firty years. He called it "Golden Medical Discovery."

This "Discovery" purifies the blood and tones up the stomacn and the entire system in Nature' own way. It's just the tissue builder and tonic you require when recovering from a hard cold, grip, or pneumonia. No matter how strong the constitution the stomach is apt to be "out of kilter" at times; in consequence the blood is disordered, for the stomach is the laboratory for the constant manufacture of blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure, rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body. The weak, nervous, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people experience at this time of the year is usually the effect of poisons in the blood; it is often indicated by pimples or boile appearing on the skin, the face becomes thin—you feel "blue."

"More than a week ago I was suffering with an awfut cold in my head, throat, breast, and body," writes Mr. JAMES G. KENT, of 710 L. Street, S. E., Washington, D. C. "Some called it La Grippe, some pueumonia. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your "Golden Medical Discovery." I tried a bottle and it did me so much good that I feel safe in asying it is the greatest and best medicine that I ever took. My health is much better than it was before using your medicine. It does all you claim for it and is satisfactor."

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework. gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill.

I wish every suffering woman would give

The Woman's Tonic a trial. I still use Cardui when I feel a little bad, and it always does me good."

Headache, backache, side ache, nervousness, tired, worn-out feelings, etc., are sure signs of womanly trouble. Signs that you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. You cannot make a mistake in trying Cardui for your trouble. It has been helping weak, aiting women for more than fifty years.

Acting according to advices from the Dunlan Pony Co., of Greenfield, Ohio, who are furnishing the Shetland Pony, Cart and Harness in The Republican Pony Contest, we have extended the time of ending the contest until

Saturday, July 26

4 p. m., when the ballots will be counted. The pony people state at this week, when the pony was to have been delivered, that they cannot send but will send as quickly as possible. We are expecting the Pony Outfit any day after this week, and will arrange a

PONY DAY

Which will be announced later. NOW IS THE TIME FOR EVERY CONTESTANT TO WORK HARD.
